Location and Facilities

Junior 4-H camps will be based at All Saints Ukrainian Orthodox Church Camp, located on the banks of the beautiful Allegheny River near Emlenton, Pennsylvania. Campers will participate in traditional camp activities in and around the base camp. The ninety-acre camp features cabins for campers; a rustic dining hall; a multi-use outdoor sports court with tennis courts, basketball hoops, and sand volleyball courts; a grass "all-sports" field; an auditorium with stage; a pavilion; a swimming pool; hiking trails; modern restroom facilities; and swimming and canoeing (weather permitting) on the Allegheny River. Campers will be housed in cabins or dormitory-style rooms furnished with bunk beds and mattresses. Each cabin accommodates six to eight campers and two counselors. Meals will be prepared by camp employees and served family-style in the dining hall.

Registration (due by June 1)

Arrival: Wednesday, June 17, 1:00–2:00 p.m.

Departure: Saturday, June 20, 1:00 p.m.

Summer will be here before you know it. 4-H camp offers chances to make friends, enjoy camp traditions, and learn about the outdoors.

Staff

The staff will include 4-H volunteers, extension staff, a registered nurse, and qualified lifeguards. Teenage 4-H members who have received training will serve as camp counselors. Counselors are chosen for their leadership skills and their ability to work well with both their peers and younger children.

Registration Includes

Complete the attached registration form and return it to your local extension office. The fee should accompany the form. The registration deadline is June 1, 2009. Space is limited; applicants in each county will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. After their registration is received, campers will be mailed details about arrival and departure, a map to camp, a medical form, and a list of items to bring to camp.

Requirements

Campers will need 4-H informal dress, with appropriate outerwear. They must bring their own blankets, pillows, bed linens, and towels. Parents and campers will be required to sign a code of conduct and a risk awareness form before the campers will be permitted to participate in camp activities

Hurry.
Space is limited.

More Information

Registrants will receive further information by mail.
