

Session Four

Step In or Step Back: What Do You Think?

1. Your youth group has decided that they want to organize a bungee jumping outing. They have no information about the risks associated with the activity. Step In or Step Back?
2. Your youth group has decided to host a picnic at the local park next Saturday. You have heard that the forecast calls for rain. Step In or Step Back?
3. Your youth group decided to conduct a community car wash. They have all the plans in place, but you are worried. The last time you did this with a group, it was a disaster. Step In or Step Back?
4. Your youth group wants to take a camping trip, and they plan to have other youth in the group drive. Step In or Step Back?
5. Your youth group is approached by someone in the community who wants to have them participate in a fundraiser. Step In or Step Back?
6. Your youth group decides to organize a food drive. You know that another local youth group is doing the same thing? Step In or Step Back?
7. Your youth group wants to participate in the Adopt-A-Highway program. You have your doubts about whether everyone will contribute equally. Step In or Step Back?
8. Your youth group members seem to be frustrated with one another, and they are not addressing their concerns. Step In or Step Back?
9. One member of your youth group comes to you to complain about another member. Step In or Step Back?
10. Your youth group did not complete a project that they committed to. Consequently, others in the community were let down. Step In or Step Back?