Bubble Factory: getting out of trouble list

Materials:

- Bubble Trouble list
- Pencils
- Book: Bubble Factory by Tomie dePaola

What to do:

- Read the Book: Bubble Factory by Tomie dePaola
- The book's first sentence is, "Sam and Molly were always getting into things and Grandpa was always getting them out."
- Talk about the pictures on the first two pages. Are you sometimes like Sam and Molly getting into messes? How did Grandpa get Sam and Molly out of the things they were getting into?
- What fun activities did Grandpa do with Sam and Molly? Do you like to make popcorn, fly kites, play in the snow, and listen to stories too?
- Make a list of fun things that you like to do together that can get you out of trouble before it starts.
- Don't forget to write down blow bubbles!
- Make up your own story of a bubble adventure that you could have like Sam, Molly and Grandpa. Include some of the ideas that you wrote down on your list.

Talk about:

- What things can you do to help you stay calm when you feel stressed or upset?
- How can you use your imagination when you feel bored or tired?
