The birthplace of Memorial Day began right here,
With three ladies decorating the graves of soldiers that showed no fear,
It began in 1864,
And it will be celebrated for ever more.

Dropping everything they are doing, to get on the ball.
These brave men and women answer the call.

At the red light take a left, then a right where 2 large guns welcome you!

Draw you in to explore.
In the museum you will pay a fee
Or walk the grounds for free.

After time paying tribute to all who served
We move on to more history to observe.
Across the street, we take our chances
To the Columbus Chapel and Boals Mansion.
